PREFACE.

THE COMMITTEE OF LLOYD'S REGISTER OF BRITISH AND FOREIGN SHIPPING have the pleasure to place in the hands of Subscribers the SECOND ANNUAL EDITION OF THE UNIVERSAL REGISTER.

Advantage has been taken of the time which has elapsed since the issue of the first edition to make a thorough revision of the work, and to include in it much additional information, which the Committee believe will greatly increase its usefulness to the Shipping Community. The additions which have been made in the present edition may be briefly stated as follows:—

(1.) Names of the Masters of Vessels, with dates showing how long they have sailed as masters in the service of the owners of their present vessels and how long they have held their present commands;

(2.) Dates of Metal Sheathing of wood and composite vessels classed by the different societies for the classification of shipping;

(3.) List of Wet Docks, Tidal Harbours, &c., in all parts of the world;

(4.) Lists of the London and Liverpool Marine Insurance Companies and Agencies;

(5.) Lists of the Shipbuilders at the various ports of the United Kingdom, and of the Builders of Iron and Steel Vessels abroad; also lists of existing vessels built by the latter;

(6.) Tables of the War Vessels of the World, arranged according to their speed, armament and armour; and a Table giving interesting and important details of heavy Marine Artillery.

In the compilation of this additional information, as well as in keeping the UNIVERSAL REGISTER abreast of the changes which have occurred in connection with the merchant shipping of the w[illegible] the Committee have received from many quarters most courteous and valuable aid, for which [illegible] to the present opportunity of returning their best thanks. Especially do the Committee fe[illegible] express their sense of the liberal action of the Marine Departments of the British, [illegible] Foreign, Governments in continuing to supply them, for the use of the public, [illegible] drawn from the official records of the merchant shipping of their respective count[illegible]

[illegible] personnes, [illegible] est de ce chef

The official information with which they are thus furnished, in addition to that obtained from private sources and through the widely extended organisation of LLOYD'S REGISTER itself, renders the Committee confident that the UNIVERSAL REGISTER will justify its title, and take its place as the International Register of Shipping for commercial and for statistical purposes.

Without recapitulating the list of contents, attention may be invited to the following sections of the book which are of a somewhat special character:—

I. THE STATISTICAL TABLES which have been compiled for the present work will, it is thought, prove not only valuable to all who are connected with shipping, but also of considerable interest to the general public. They contain much information which had not, so far as the Committee know, been published prior to the issue of the UNIVERSAL REGISTER; and it will be seen that their practical usefulness has been much increased by the elaborate system of analysis which has been adopted. A new table has now been introduced showing the additions which have been made during the past year to the principal merchant navies of the world. It may be stated that the Committee have determined to develop still further this branch of the work in future editions.

II. LIST OF WAR SHIPS OF THE WORLD.—As described in detail in the memorandum at the commencement of the list, important additions have been made to this section, still further facilitating a comparison of the naval power of different nations. The list has been compiled from the best available sources of information, and the Committee believe it will be found to be the most complete that has yet been published. For the assistance which has kindly been rendered them from many quarters in this part of the work, the Committee beg to offer their thanks.

Although no effort has been spared to render the UNIVERSAL REGISTER both accurate and complete, the Committee are conscious that the compilation of so vast a mass of information can scarcely be unattended by errors and omissions. They will therefore most highly appreciate any aid with which, in their endeavour to meet the business requirements of the present day, they may be favoured, either by the rectification of errors or by the supply of further information.

It only remains to be stated that the UNIVERSAL REGISTER will in no way interfere with the publication of LLOYD'S REGISTER BOOK and the YACHT REGISTER, both of which will continue to be issued annually as heretofore.

ill, London,
April, 1887.

PRÉFACE.

Le Comité du Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping est heureux de pouvoir livrer aux souscripteurs la seconde édition annuelle de l'Universal Register.

Le temps qui s'est écoulé depuis la publication de la première édition a été mis à profit pour faire une révision soignée de l'ouvrage et y ajouter une quantité de renseignements nouveaux, qui comme le Comité l'espère, le rendront encore plus utile à tous ceux intéressés dans le Commerce maritime.

Les additions qui y ont été faites peuvent se résumer comme suit :

1°. Noms des capitaines et dates établissant depuis combien de temps ils sont comme capitaines au service des propriétaires de leurs présents navires, et depuis combien de temps ils tiennent le commandement de ces derniers.

2°. Dates des doublages des navires en bois et composites, cotés auprès des différentes Sociétés de Classification de Navires.

3°. Liste des bassins, ports à marée, etc., dans toutes les parties du monde.

4°. Liste des Compagnies et Agences de Compagnies d'Assurances maritimes, établies à Londres et Liverpool.

5°. Listes des constructeurs de navires dans les différents ports du Royaume-Uni et des constructeurs de navires en fer et acier à l'étranger, avec la liste des navires construits par ces derniers, actuellement existants.

6°. Tableau des navires de guerre du monde, classés suivant leur vitesse, leur armement et leur cuirasse; suivi d'un tableau fournissant d'intéressants détails sur la grosse artillerie de marine.

Le Comité profite de cette occasion pour offrir ses meilleurs remerciments aux nombreuses personnes, qui au cours de son travail lui ont prêté leur précieux et bienveillant concours et auxquelles il est de ce chef infiniment obligé.

Il s'empresse de mentionner tout spécialement à ce sujet l'appui généreux, que les départements de la Marine des Gouvernements anglais et étrangers ont continué à lui accorder ; et de leur exprimer toute sa gratitude pour les renseignements officiels et précieux, qui lui ont été fournis sur leurs marines marchandes respectives, en vue d'être utile au public.

Sans faire la récapitulation de la table des matières, le Comité désire attirer l'attention sur les parties suivantes d'un caractère plus particulier.

I. Les Tables de Statistiques spécialement composées pour le présent ouvrage ne seront pas seulement, le Comité en a l'espoir, d'une utilité réelle pour le Commerce maritime, mais présenteront certainement un grand intérêt pour le public en général. Elles contiennent maintes informations, qui pour autant que le Comité a pu s'en rendre compte n'ont jamais été publiées avant que l'Universal Register eut paru. Leur utilité pratique est encore rehaussée par le système d'analyse adopté. Une nouvelle table a été introduite cette année, ayant pour but de montrer quelles sont les additions qui ont été faites dans le courant de l'année écoulée aux principales marines marchandes du monde. La résolution prise par le Comité de développer encore d'avantage ces Tables dans les prochaines éditions sera certainement favorablement accueillie.

II. La Liste des Navires de Guerre du Monde.—Comme il est dit d'une façon détaillée dans la note qui précède cette section, d'importantes additions y ont été introduites, donnant à cet état comparatif des forces navales des différentes nations encore plus de clarté et de précision. Vu le caractère authentique des informations sur lesquelles il est fondé, ce travail sera trouvé, le Comité l'espère, l'ouvrage le plus complet de ce genre. Le Comité présente ses remercîments pour l'assistance dont il a été favorisé lors de la compilation de cette section.

Inutile d'assurer finalement que rien n'a été négligé pour rendre l'Universal Register aussi exact et aussi complet que possible ; le travail embrassant toutefois une quantité si considérable de renseignements, le Comité fait appel à l'indulgence du public pour les erreurs, qui auraient pu s'y glisser malgré l'attention apportée à l'ouvrage.

Il serait heureux, si en lui signalant ces erreurs ou en lui fournissant de nouvelles informations, on voulait l'aider à atteindre le but qu'il s'est proposé, d'élever son livre au rang d'un ouvrage, répondant sous tous les rapports aux exigences de nos jours.

Il reste à mentionner que l'Universal Register n'apportera aucun changement dans la publication du Lloyd's Register Book et du Yacht Register, qui continueront à être publiés séparément comme par le passé.
